BLACK TEAS

« DARJEELING JUNGPANA » (Young Lady in Tibetan)

The gardens where the tea leaves are grown are located on the Himalayan foothills. A rich smell and light sweet taste are characteristic of this tea.

(Advised time of infusion: 2 - 5 min)

« ASSAM RUNGAGORA »

The region nearby the Bangladesh produces powerful teas with flavours of spices and smoke. Adding a drop of milk bends with magic the blend.

(Advised time of infusion: 2 - 5 min)

« LAPSANG SOUCHONG »

Originated from the Fujian region in China, the Lapsang Souchong is first dried on pine or cedar wood, then rolled and oxydated and dried again in bamboo baskets fired with spruce.

(Advised time of infusion: 2 - 5 min)

« EARL GREY TEA »

A blend of teas from Keemun and Yunnan, two Chinese provinces. The mixture is aromatized with bergamot. A refreshing tea with a hint of citrus.

(Advised time of infusion: 1 - 3 min)

« CHAI » (Tea in Hindi)

This classical Indian Assam black tea boasts notes of cinnamon, ginger, cardamom and black pepper. The Chai is best sweetened to highlight the spicy tastes.

(Advised time of infusion: 2 - 5 min)

FRUIT INFUSIONS

« ROYAL BOUQUET »

A fruity composition one of its kind: papaya, currants, elderberries, black and red currant, strawberries and raspberries. An impish wink to summertime.

« FRUIT SYMPHONY »

Harmonious symphony of hibiscus flowers, apple pieces, rose hips, orange peels, corn and calendula flowers, enhanced with flavours of mango and tropical fruits. A musical note for a lazy afternoon in The Lounge.

GREEN TEAS

« GUI HUA »

This traditional tea from Hu Bei in central China owes its light peach and apricot flavours to the use of flowers from Osmanthus tree. A refreshing green tea without bitterness, a dreamful initiation to tea.

« SENCHA FUJI »

Grown in the vicinity of Mount Fuji, its delicate leaves deliver intense aromas and subtle flavour of sweetness. A green tea for connoisseurs. Rich in vitamin C.

« IMPERIAL JASMINE DRAGON PEARLS »

The King of jasmine tea has its most precious flowers freshly expelled from young tea leaves and rolled into small balls (Pearls). A fragrant taste and perfume of jasmine.

« SPRING SENCHA »

Japanese green tea blend of cornflower, rose and marigold petals. It has a sweet taste of strawberries and is the earliest harvested tea in the year.

HERBAL INFUSIONS

« VERBENA »

Intense, aromatic herbal infusion to stimulate the heart and tickle the senses. The favorite drink for a relaxing instant.

« ROOISBOS »

Delicate in flavour, this tea's most present aroma is the pure bourbon vanilla originated from South Africa. The ideal tea for an idyllic moment. Without theine but with natural C vitamin.

« NANAH MINT »

Unrivalled Nanah mint tea served with ceremony to celebrate the tradition of North African countries. The awakening of holiday memories with Moroccan flavours.
